

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF TENNESSEE, SOUTHERN DIVISION

In re:

No. 00-13668
Chapter 7

CHOO CHOO CUSTOMS GROUP, INC.

Debtor

JERRY FARINASH, TRUSTEE

Plaintiff

v.

Adversary Proceeding
No. 01-1032

ROSS N. FAIRES,

Defendant

ORDER

The plaintiff has filed a motion that asks the court to extend the time to respond to dispositive motions. Specifically, the plaintiff asks the court to treat all dispositive motions as filed on October 3, 2001, and allow him twenty (20) days after that to file a consolidated response. It appears to the court that the response to dispositive motions that have already been filed should not be delayed that long, but the plaintiff can have an extension of the time to respond. Accordingly,

It is ORDERED that the plaintiff is allowed thirty (30) days after the date of this order within which to file a response to any pending dispositive motion to which he has not already filed a response.

ENTER:

BY THE COURT

---

R. THOMAS STINNETT
UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE