

BANKRUPTCY NOTICING CENTER FEATURES FOR BANKRUPTCY CM/ECF RELEASE 4.1

The Court is targeting the end of May to begin operations under Bankruptcy CM/ECF Release 4.1. Release 4.1 will support two noticing-related improvements provided by the court's Bankruptcy Noticing Center (BNC) contractor.

1. BNC Certificate of Notice.

In Release 4.1, where a document is being noticed to recipients through the BNC and through CM/ECF Notice of Electronic Filing (NEF), the BNC Certificate of Notice will reflect both BNC and CM/ECF NEF recipients. Information regarding who was noticed by NEF, and when they were noticed, will be appended to the BNC Certificate of Notice.

2. E-mailed Bypass Notice to Debtors' Attorneys.

The court uses the BNC to mail notices, but the BNC can only do so if an address is valid. If an address is not valid, the United States Postal Service (USPS) treats this as sending mail to an undeliverable address. The BNC bypasses notices with undeliverable addresses from printing and mailing.

The BNC sends notification to the debtor's attorney or pro se debtor when a notice to an intended recipient on the mailing list is bypassed. (Sample of bypass Notice attached.)

Currently, debtor's attorneys receive printed and mailed BNC bypass notices associated with the court's issuance of the § 341 notice. The improvement provided with CM/ECF Release 4.1 will result in notification to your primary e-mail address on file with the court of undeliverable addresses for all notices transmitted by the BNC. The debtor's attorney will no longer receive paper bypass notices mailed by the BNC. If there is no email address for the debtor's attorney, then the bypass notice will be mailed.

TO THE DEBTOR/DEBTOR'S ATTORNEY:

The attached notice could not be mailed to the intended notice recipient(s) listed below because the United States Postal Service (USPS) has determined that those addresses in the case mailing list are undeliverable.

Please be advised that dischargeability of a debt may be affected if a creditor fails to receive certain notices. You should determine whether an address should be updated.

NOTE: No further notices will be mailed to the intended notice recipient(s) listed below until the address is updated in accordance with local court policy, which may allow for use of this form, a separate notice of change of address, and/or an amended schedule. THIS FORM CANNOT BE USED TO ADD A NEW CREDITOR NOT PREVIOUSLY LISTED ON YOUR SCHEDULES.

If this form is used by your court in place of filing a separate notice of change of address and/or an amended schedule: 1) locate the correct address and send the attached notice to each intended recipient; 2) list each updated address below; 3) sign and date the form; and 4) file this form with the court.
