

How Do I Request DeBN?

Signing up for DeBN is easy:

1. Go to the court's website:
www.tneb.uscourts.gov
2. Print and complete the DeBN Electronic Noticing Election Form, Local Form 9036.1.
3. File the completed form with the bankruptcy clerk's office.

Activation of your account is now complete, and you will receive a confirmation email from the BNC.

From this point forward, all future notices and orders issued by the bankruptcy court will be delivered to you via email, as long as your name and address in the bankruptcy case match your name and address in your DeBN account and there are no email transmission failures.

Keep the court advised by filing an updated request form if you:

- Change your email address;
- File a new case after enrolling in DeBN (so the court can make sure your name and address in your DeBN account match your new case); or
- Wish to deactivate or reactivate your account.

Advantages of DeBN:

- Faster — Receive notices the same day they are issued by the court.
- Convenient — Access your notices anywhere you have internet access.
- No more lost paperwork — Storing notices on your computer means never losing a paper copy.
- Less paper clutter — Helps the environment and reduces paper clutter in your home.
- It is FREE!

What is DeBN?

DEBTOR ELECTRONIC BANKRUPTCY NOTICING (DeBN) is a FREE and voluntary service that allows debtors to request delivery of court notices and orders from the bankruptcy court, through the BNC, via email instead of U.S. mail.

Who is the BNC?

The BANKRUPTCY NOTICING CENTER (BNC) provides services to the bankruptcy court by sending court notices and orders to the parties by either mail or email.

What are Court Notices and Orders?

Court notices and orders refer to the documents issued by the bankruptcy court or clerk, which may include, but are not limited to, the following:

- > Notice of Meeting of Creditors
- > Notice Setting or Canceling Hearing
- > Notice of Requirement to Complete Course in Financial Management
- > Notice re: Deficient Documents
- > Order on Motion for Relief from Stay
- > Order Confirming Chapter 13 Plan
- > Order Discharging Debtor

Who Will Serve Me via Email?

By enrolling in DeBN, a debtor consents ONLY to service of court notices and orders generated by the bankruptcy court and clerk. The BNC, on the bankruptcy court's behalf, will prepare and send the emails.

No other parties, such as creditors and trustees, are allowed to use the DeBN program to email debtors - all other parties will continue to serve documents upon the debtor via U.S. mail.

Length of Enrollment in DeBN:

A DeBN account remains active, unless:

- 1) a debtor's account is automatically disabled due to an email transmission failure (email bounce-back); or
- 2) a debtor files a request to deactivate the account. A debtor may file this request at any time.

As long as the debtor's DeBN account is active, all court notices and orders will be emailed to the debtor by the BNC in any current or future bankruptcy case or adversary proceeding from any bankruptcy court district in which the debtor's name and address in that case match the name and address in the debtor's DeBN account, including cases where the debtor may be listed as a creditor.

How it Works:

Once the debtor completes the Debtor Electronic Noticing Election form by checking the initial request box on the form and submits the completed form to the bankruptcy clerk's office, all future court notices and orders will be emailed to the debtor.

When the court issues a notice or order and sends it to the BNC for service upon the debtor, the BNC will email the notice to the debtor at the end of the day. The court notice or order will be emailed as a single PDF attachment, and a separate email will be sent for each court notice or order that has been filed.

There is no limit to the number of times the debtor may view the PDF attachment, and the debtor is free to print the attachment, save it to his or her computer, or simply retain the email for viewing at any time.

If the PDF attachment exceeds 8 MB, the notice will be sent to the debtor by U.S. mail instead of email.

Completion of the DeBN Election Form is mandatory per Local Rule 9036-1(b), although participation in DeBN is optional. Please visit the court's website at: www.tneb.uscourts.gov for Local Form 9036.1, Debtor Electronic Noticing Election.
