How to File a Claim in a Bankruptcy Case

There are three ways to file a claim in a bankruptcy case: (1) using the electronic filing service on the Court's website; (2) using the CM/ECF system; or (3) by mail or in person.

Electronic Filing of Claims

Filing a proof of claim through the Court's website is instantaneous, immediately verifiable, and free. A login or password is not required to file a claim through the Court's website. A creditor may file a claim action in a bankruptcy case by clicking on the appropriate link below:

Instructions

Withdrawal Box

- Read about the difference between a withdrawal of a claim and an amendment of a claim.
- If you would like to withdraw a claim, click Withdraw Claim.

DO YOU WANT TO FILE A WITHDRAWAL OF CLAIM OR AN AMENDED CLAIM?

A withdrawal of claim is typically filed when the claim was filed in error and there are no funds due the creditor. If you file a withdrawal of claim in a case where you have received distributions from the Trustee, the Trustee will contact you regarding a refund of those funds.

An amendment of a claim is filed when there is a change in the amount due, the classification of the claim or if there is documentation that needs to be added or changed. If you wish to file an amended claim, click on "Proof of Claims" check the box to indicate the claim is amending a previously filed claim; and enter the pertinent information on the claim form.

File Notice of Withdrawal of Claim

- Enter the case number.
